The schedules for the opening rounds of the men's and women's Collegiate Rugby Championships have been released. The women begin playing Friday, June 3, and the men on Saturday, June 4. All games will be played at either the Academy Fields or the stadium at Talen Energy Stadium, Chester, PA. Follow both teams at www.kurecreation.com throughout the competition. Tickets are still available at <http://usasevenscsrc.com/tickets/kutztown>.

Dr. Kenneth Teitelbaum has been named dean for the College of Education at Kutztown University, effective July 1. Teitelbaum will be the chief executive of the college, comprising five departments: Special Education, Elementary Education, Secondary Education, Library & Learning Technologies, and Counseling & Student Affairs. Working closely with faculty and department chairs, he will set the strategic objectives for the college and will lead the creation and implementation of programs and actions to realize them. Teitelbaum comes to KU from University of North Carolina Wilmington, where he served as dean and professor for the Watson College of Education.

KU HISTORY

May 29, 1928: Keystone State Normal School officially became Kutztown State Teachers College after granting its first Bachelor of Science degrees at commencement exercises. Four students were awarded diplomas.

Emma Sullivan wrapped up a record-breaking and championship-winning career in Florida last Thursday. Despite not clearing a height, Sullivan experienced her second career NCAA National Track & Field Championship, representing the Kutztown University women's track & field team at the IMG Academy. Earlier that day, Sullivan was named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District Team for the second straight year, placing her on the Academic All-America ballot to be selected in June.
