

The Arthur and Isabel Wiesenberger Faculty Award for Excellence in Teaching

GUIDELINES

- A. The award will be presented annually to one faculty member who has served Kutztown University in a manner which sets him/her apart from faculty colleagues. The recipient will receive $2,000 and a plaque which will be presented by the president of Kutztown University on opening day of the fall semester.
1. The board of directors of the Kutztown University Alumni Association will have overall responsibility for the selection process. The Alumni Relations Office will be responsible for all details relating to the administration of the award.
- B. Any current full-time tenured faculty member at Kutztown University is eligible for nomination. A faculty member is eligible to receive the award only once.
- C. Nominations may be submitted by anyone associated with Kutztown University. Faculty members, administrators, staff, students and alumni are invited to submit nominations.
1. Nomination forms will be made available to all interested parties.
 2. The deadline for submitting a nomination is April 1 of each year.
 3. Notification of the award nomination period and guidelines will be published on the alumni website and in the Daily Brief.
 4. Once a person is nominated, the nominee will be contacted to advise him/her of his/her nomination and to request a current resume, if the individual chooses to take part in the process. It is also recommended that the nominee submit letters of support from colleagues and former students and also include copies of most recent peer and student evaluation results.
- D. The Selection Committee will base its selection on the following general criteria:
1. The faculty member possesses a scholarly knowledge of the subject matter that she/he teaches; the educator exemplifies a commitment to academic excellence.
 2. The faculty member demonstrates effective teaching by communicating well, motivating students to learn, presenting information in creative ways, applying knowledge in unique ways and helping students to think critically and constructively.
 3. The faculty member contributes to the increase of knowledge in his/her academic discipline through research, publication and curriculum development.
 4. The faculty member helps students to appreciate learning as a life-long endeavor, assisting students to enhance their knowledge, skills and competencies as responsible, mature and productive persons within our society.
 5. The faculty member is esteemed and respected as a teacher by colleagues.
 6. The faculty member strives to help students achieve academic and professional success.
- E. Upon completion of the selection process each year, submitted material will be returned to the nominee to preserve confidentiality. A candidate can resubmit material when renominated in sub-sequent years if he/she so desires.
